

2021 Piedmont Regional Goat & Sheep Conference

Webinar Series Producer Panel

Aaron Snider, Snider Farm

Snider Farm is located in Liberty, North Carolina. We produce lamb and commercial hair sheep replacements. We rotationally graze a growing flock currently comprised of around 50 commercial St. Croix/Katahdin cross ewes on 14 acres of pasture. We pride ourselves on data driven decision making and using our resources in a sustainable and profitable manner.

John Brasfield, Brasfield Club Lambs and Dorsets

John Brasfield graduated from Virginia Tech with a B.S. in Animal Science and from NC State with a Master's degree in Animal Science/Nutrition. He has three daughters who all grew up in 4-H and showed sheep from the time they were 5, 4, and 3 years of age until they aged out. So far, John has three grandsons with an unknown one on the way. He has been married to his wife, Laurie, for 40 years. John is retired from the NC Cooperative Extension, where he was both the Livestock Agent and the County Extension Director in Stokes County. The last few years of his career, he was an Agricultural Teacher where he taught Animal Science, Equine Science, and Horticulture. John has been raising sheep since 1986. He runs 100 head on 10 1/2 acres where he practices intensive grazing management. John raises both commercial Hamp/Suffolk and Dorset club lamb type sheep.

Nate Baribault, Baribault Livestock Company

Nate Baribault is an associate veterinarian at Sun Valley Embryo Transfer, P.A. and the owner of Baribault Livestock Company. Nate graduated from NC State before moving to Salina, KS in 2019. He operates Baribault Livestock Company, a 75 head Boer Goat and Simmental Cattle operation in central Kansas. Nate's main interests are in ruminant reproductive management and technologies, such as AI, ET and IVF, that he utilizes within client herds and his own.
